Dear Margaret

I write you these few lines hoping this will find you in good health as this bears me at present in good health same William Watt and I was taking a walk up by Mackenzey last Sunday and your friends they were spec about five and they told to call if we came up but I thought it very strange they never asked for any of you Dear Margaret you was not telling me about the betshele trip that was to be on Saturday last you was telling me that you sed William Taylor and he was telling you that I was coming over on Saturday last but he was telling you lies for I never that to any one and going to se Marriam

Willson William Watt and me was in the town we only went to put of the time we was away with the 8 o'clock train Dear Margaret you was wright to tell me about it but believe me you will never need to tell me again about her I hope you will excuse me for ~~the time Grant and Jess~~ is going to Glasgow the first Saturday of august for it is one fair that day so I think it will be the jubilee day so he is not coming with me

Dear Margaret I have little more to say you must write and let me know if you hear about the gabelle when it is to be then I will tell you when I am coming over in my next letter Dear Margaret

I have no more at present but always remains yours

Sincerely David Francis
